RSS working 24 hrs to finish off Constitution

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

CONGRESS LEADER Rahul Gandhi on Tuesday alleged that Prime Minister Narendra Modi, the BJP and RSS were working round-the-clock to "finish off"

round-the-clock to "finish off" the Constitution.
Speaking at a rally at Gondia in support of Congress candidate Gopaldas Agrawal ahead of the Maharashtra assembly elections, he said the ideology of the Congress was in the "DNA" of the people of the Vidarbha region and the state.
The Constitution of India enshrines the values of unity, equality, respect for every religion, and does not talk about harted, suppression of farmers and gion, and does not talk about ha-tred, suppression of farmers and inequality, he said.

"I can tell you with a guaran-tee that the Prime Minister has never read the Constitution, be-cause had he read it, he would have respected what is written in the Constitution," he said.

"The RSS, BJP and PM
Narendra Modi are working 24 hours to finish off the Constitution," the Congress leader alleged, asking was it constitutional to topple a government. "So when they topple the MVA government in Maharashtra, they weaken the Constitution," Candhi said.
"Constitution is a book of love and you will not find hatred anywhere in this book. But you will find hatred in the hearts of BJP people, and not in this book or in the hearts of Congress workers
and the MVA," he said.
People should ask Modi how many farmers loans he waived in the last ten years, he said, claiming that the BJP government, instead, privatised everything.
Soybean, cotton growers in Maharashtra will get proper price for their crops while the poor will get Rs 25 lakh health insurance if the MVA came to power, the Congress leader said.
